SYDNEY VIVID FESTIVAL CENTENNIAL PARK & SYDNEY BY NIGHT

MAY/JUNE 2018

Vivid Sydney, our Festival of Light, Music and Ideas returns, once again featuring the spectacular illumination of Sydney. Last year hundreds of thousands of people flocked to our Harbourfront to see the incredible illumination of many of the city's buildings along with smaller light art installation around the waters edge. The Museum of Contemporary Art and Customs House were indeed VIVID and the amazing colour stretched from the Opera House around to Campbell's Cove to Walsh Bay and through the Rocks.

Our tour has been designed to showcase not just "vivid" but the rest of our colourful city – when the sun goes down Sydney comes alive! We will enjoy the glittering sights of our remarkable city as we travel through Woolloomooloo, Kings Cross and Oxford Street.

Our afternoon commences with a drive through Centennial Park, one of the jewels in Sydney's crown. We will explore the park both onboard and on foot following our afternoon tea. Centennial Park is celebrating it's 150th birthday this year. Sir Henry Parkes vision was to create a people's park and today it is one of the most popularly visited and vibrant greenspaces in Australia. It's importance pre dates it's commission as a park when the area provided fresh water for Sydney back in the 1820's via Busby's bore. Significantly the proclamation of the Commonwealth of Australian occurred in the park – the birthplace of our nation!

The tour will feature a progressive dinner with champagne and nibbles at Mrs Macquarie's Chair and the main course at the Paddington RSL Club. We will conclude with tea, coffee, port and cake under the bridge at Kirribilli.

Following our main course we will explore the waterfront on foot, alighting and returning to the coach on Phillip Street near Circular Quay. You are in close proximity to the Cahill Observation Lift and Deck which gives a spectacular overview of the festival and further around the Quay is the amazing display of Customs House.

Cost is $78.00 per person and includes afternoon tea, meals as stipulated and luxury coach transportation. Departs 2.00 pm and returns approx 10.15 pm.
